No Cheating

Waleed Lugod

Description

A player-versus-player shooter game where you have to cheat to win.

Mechanics

You are given two screens, the top being yours, and the bottom being your opponent's. You must defeat your opponent by shooting them. In your screen, your bullets are invisible as well as your opponent, and your opponent faces the same situation. In order to know where your opponent is and where you are shooting, you must cheat and peek at their screen.

The health on your screen shows your health, and the health on the opponent screen shows their health.
